An Equal Opportunity Employer

inclusion is one of our defining strengths

Certain qualities are in a company's DNA.

At Lockheed Martin, we are driven by innovation and integrity. We believe that by applying the highest standards of business ethics and visionary thinking, everything is within our reach -- and yours. Like creating systems vital to the safety and security of our nation and international partners. Like shaping the latest technological breakthroughs that redefine defense, information technology and commercial business. Like delivering countless systems and products that reflect the best ideas of people around the globe. We invite you to explore the possibilities with one of the foremost systems engineering, software and systems integration companies in the world.

A Total Value package.

There is much to be said about the Lockheed Martin Total Value package. It is specifically designed to help you realize your professional and personal best... to achieve all that you can imagine. Part of the package involves nurturing your growth through a commitment to develop top talent from within, and through access to a wide range of training programs and services. There is also the opportunity to work in exceptional environments marked by:

Project Significance — including systems and technologies of national and international importance • Quality people — there is a certain amount of pride that comes with being a member of the Lockheed Martin team; our employees are respected inside and outside the company • Recognition — cash awards and other special recognition • Learning and Development • Internal Career Mobility • Competitive Pay • Excellent Benefits.

Diversity and inclusion: What we believe... what we live.

You will find that we are both a uniquely diverse and unified team; reflecting many cultures, points of view, ethnic backgrounds, styles, geographies and experiences.

We actively foster an environment that welcomes, respects and develops our individual differences as a competitive strength. It begins with our core values: Do What's Right, Respect Others, Perform With Excellence. It extends to every activity that involves attracting and retaining a talented workforce that reflects the diversity of our customers, our suppliers and our world. That's the difference between stating our commitment to diversity and inclusion — and living it.

A commitment to your work/life balance and to the communities we serve.

Part of the Lockheed Martin experience includes a focus on work/life balance, with policies and programs for employees and their families. Some of these programs include: Flexible/Alternative Work Schedules and Casual Dress at many locations • Telecommuting • Tuition Reimbursement • Employee Assistance Program • Fitness Centers • Birth/Adoption Leave • Domestic Partner Benefits • and Adoption Assistance.

We feel a calling to be a company that is a good neighbor as well as an employer of choice. The corporation encourages company and individual choice volunteer activities and provides the Lockheed Martin Volunteers web site for employees to log and track their volunteer activities. Since 2002, more than 8.2M volunteer hours have been recorded. In addition to business unit recognition of volunteers, the corporation has partnered with the President's Volunteer Service Awards for employees who volunteer 100 or more hours annually. More than 23,000 employees have received these awards. Employees serve on more than 600 community boards. The corporation made $24.1M in philanthropic donations in 2009, provides an educational matching gift program for employees and sponsors scholarships for children of employees. Our community focus is 20% on customer/constituent relations, 30% community and 50% education. Employees donated $22.2M last year in charitable workplace giving campaigns.

Great places to live and work.

Many choices for your aspirations.

If you wish to apply visionary thinking to shape and deliver the latest technological breakthroughs, join us in one of our major business units.
